Insight Into Academia Magazine’s 2025 Inspiring Programs in STEM Award

Recognizing Programs Across the Nation That Make a Difference for All in the Fields of Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM)

(INSERT CITY AND DATE)—Today, (INSERT YOUR INSTITUTION’S NAME AND PROGRAM TITLE) received the 2025 Inspiring Programs in STEM Award from Insight Into Academia magazine, the largest and oldest academic excellence and belonging publication in higher education. The STEM Award is a measure of an institution’s individual programs and initiatives that encourage and support the recruitment and retention of women and underrepresented students into all STEM fields. These include, but are not limited to, science and research fields, technology, engineering, and all math fields. (INSERT INSTITUTION’S NAME) will be featured, along with 51 other recipients, in the June 2025 issue of Insight Into Academia magazine.
